

Job Title: Director of Student Ministry

Reports To: Director of Strategic Leadership and Development

Works Closely With: Staff, residents, parents and volunteers

Position Status: Full Time Exempt, Sunday Staff (40+ hrs/week)

About Us:

South is a Jesus community driven by vision and our core values. We are passionate about following in the way of Jesus, with the heart of Jesus. We have a longing to see unchurched and de-churched people come to know Jesus and to join us on this journey. If you love Jesus and students and their families we would love to talk to you about an opening on our team.

What you might be looking for:

A place to invest your skills, passions, and talents as you lead a thriving student ministry.

That's where we come in. When you join the South staff, you won't be just a new hire—you'll be a leader we can't wait to empower, a learner we can't wait to teach, and a follower of Jesus we can't wait to grow alongside.

The Director of Student Ministry wakes up thinking about the next generation of students and how to ensure their resident, and volunteers can create safe, welcoming and engaging spaces for students to take next steps with Jesus on their faith journey.

Some things we hope people say about you:

You have a growing, active relationship with Jesus.

You have an obvious calling to lead and minister to teens.

A recruiter who can attract, disciple, and retain a team of volunteer leaders around you who share your calling to disciple the next generation of Jesus followers.

You are a leader passionate about creating environments for students to feel welcomed, safe and valued so every encounter might invite people to connect with each other, and God.

A Leader who has a vision for the church and families working together to build faith in the next generation.

A person who loves to innovate ways to better connect with teens and helps connect them with God and others.

Some things people say about us:

We're committed to your growth.

We work hard and play hard and love to laugh.

We embrace flexibility to work within your strengths and gifting.

We offer a staff community that wants to partner across ministries and champion each other.

Our church community feels like, "Coming home".

We seek to live in the way of Jesus with the heart of Jesus and are always looking for ways to invite others into this journey with us.

We can offer you:

Compensation package (DOE)

PTO

Spiritual retreat days

Holidays

Staff training and development

Personal coaching and development

Qualifications:

Commitment to South's Statement of Faith, Mission, and Values.

Four-year college degree.

A heart that relentlessly pursues taking steps deeper towards Jesus.

Three years' experience in Student Ministry.

Interested in applying?

Send your resume and cover letter to:

Andrea Jones, Director of Strategic Leadership and Development

andrea@southfellowship.org

Your cover letter should include brief responses to the following questions:

- Please tell us how you are qualified for the position.
- Please tell us how this position aligns with your calling and career goals.
- Please describe your vision for student ministry.
- Please tell us what resonates for you with South's Mission Statement, "Living in the way of Jesus, with the heart of Jesus".