From Pastor Alex

Dear South Fellowship,

As we gather together for our annual celebration of what God is doing among us, it's a joy to share a few of my thoughts. I'm writing this to you upon my return from sabbatical—a season that has made me value our community all the more. I had the privilege of visiting other churches during my time away, which served as a beautiful reminder that South is just one church among many and that the kingdom of God is thriving. It also reminded me how much I love our particular expression of faith.

I have loved seeing how South has continued working toward becoming a church our city and world would miss. We see this every day through our Food Bank ministry, which brings hope to those in need and treats them with dignity. I loved seeing pictures this summer of our church community finding ways to do life with our Food Bank community. Seeing everyone side by side felt like witnessing a new piece of the Kingdom right here. Of course, while the Food Bank is a beautiful example of this, it is not the only one. You do this every time you welcome someone new into our doors. This year, I have had the privilege of meeting people trying church for the first time in a long time; of meeting burned-out pastors needing rest and renewal; and of talking with people who never gave up on Jesus but almost gave up on the church—until South became their home.

Our fall series dives into the book of Ephesians. The writer, Paul, wants to remind the church that following Jesus is not just a Sunday endeavor; it's an all-week-long mission. How does Paul do this? He spends chapter after chapter describing the amazing things Jesus has done, and then challenges us to live with that in mind. In Paul's picture of the church, everybody gets to participate. There is something for everyone to do, and you are invited.

My prayer for South in this coming season is that we become deeply aware of God's grace and live lives worthy of it. How will you participate this year as we continue making South a church our city and world would miss if we were gone?

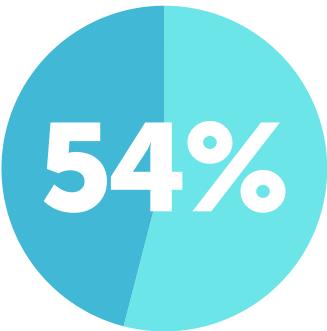

Grace and Peace,

Alex Walton

Creative Arts

GATHERING OUR CHURCH TO WORSHIP AND ENCOUNTER GOD.

A Story from This Year

This past year, we've been encouraged to watch our leadership teams in Creative Arts continue to grow. As Aaron preached more often, outstanding leaders stepped up to lead worship and our technical teams with excellence and humility. Together, they helped shape worship nights and special gatherings throughout the church calendar. It's been a joy to see God continue raising up leaders within our community. One highlight of the year was Advent, when we embraced a more liturgical style of worship. Our gatherings felt rich, reverent, and deeply meaningful.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- God continued raising up leaders across our worship and production teams, creating more opportunities for people to use their gifts in service to the church.
- Quarterly Worship Nights invited our church family to slow down, seek God together, and respond to Him through extended times of worship and prayer.
- Throughout Advent and other special gatherings, God used music, creativity, and teaching to cultivate a deeper sense of reverence, reflection, and worship within our community.

LOOKING AHEAD

Our hope is that South continues to grow as a worshipping community. Each time we gather, we're invited not only to learn about God, but to encounter Him in ways that shape our hearts and transform our lives.

Communications

HELPING PEOPLE FIND AND ENGAGE WITH LIFE AT SOUTH.

A Story from This Year

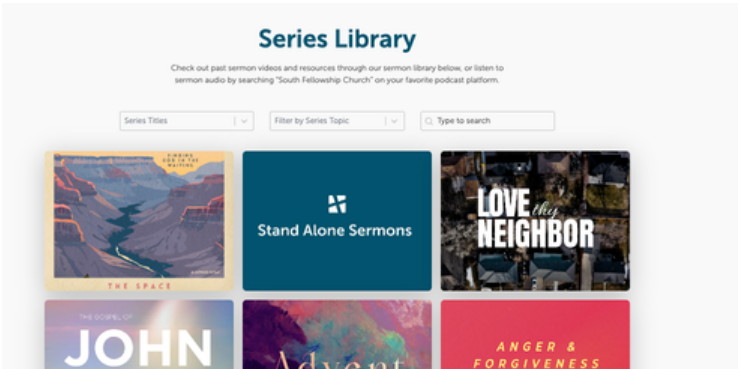

Several people who had recently moved to Colorado shared that they found South online, began listening to sermons before attending, and arrived already feeling like South was home. Before ever joining us in person, they had experienced a sense of welcome and connection through our website, sermons, and digital resources. Their stories reflect the unique opportunity Communications has to help people begin finding belonging before they ever walk through our doors.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- God expanded our Photography Team with two new volunteers, allowing us to better capture and share the life of our church.
- While creating our South Kids volunteer video, we had the privilege of hearing how serving has shaped the lives of children and volunteers, giving us a deeper glimpse into what God is doing through that ministry.
- During our August and January Next Step Sundays, 35 people who were brand new to South signed up to serve or join a group, an encouraging sign that people are finding community and taking meaningful next steps.

LOOKING AHEAD

Communications is always evolving. In the year ahead, we'll continue creating meaningful content while improving the systems and resources that support our church. Some changes will be visible, while others happen behind the scenes, but each one is intended to help people feel welcomed and find information more easily.

Connection

HELPING PEOPLE FIND THEIR PLACE IN A COMMUNITY THAT FEELS LIKE COMING HOME.

South has changed so much over the years, and being part of the Welcome Team gives me opportunities to meet people I might not encounter otherwise and hopefully put a smile on their faces as they come into worship. At the same time, it blesses me by lifting me out of the day-to-day cares I carry throughout the week.

— STEVE BOHN, WELCOME TEAM VOLUNTEER

A Story from This Year

The Chili Cook-Off and Worship Night was a beautiful surprise of connection, community, and sharing what God has done at South. We were delighted to have 31 chili entries! Seeing our congregation celebrate together with our Food Bank shoppers over a meal and then come together to worship the Lord was exactly what we hope to see when we talk about environments that feel like coming home.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- God continued bringing volunteers into roles where they could use their gifts and serve with joy.
- As South transitioned to two Sunday services, God faithfully provided the volunteers and hospitality needed to welcome people each week.
- Events like the Chili Cook-Off and Pentecost Potluck created meaningful opportunities for connection, community, and belonging.

LOOKING AHEAD

We anticipate continuing to create opportunities for connection and formation through South Midweek classes, as well as other ways to provide clear next steps for people as they enter our community.

South Kids

PARTNERING WITH FAMILIES AS THEY LEARN
TO FOLLOW JESUS.

South Kids is really good, and everybody should try it out.

-LANDON, 2ND GRADE STUDENT

A Story from This Year

A mom who attended the Passover Seder during Easter week for the first time was thoroughly delighted and excited as she, with her children, discovered some faith-related hidden gems in the Old Testament that help connect the story of Jesus.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- Eagle Lake Day Camp continued to be a highlight for South Kids, welcoming 126 campers and drawing children from our local community. Through our partnership with North Littleton Promise, 27 campers participated, and we were grateful to see 9 student crew leaders and 2 counselors-in-training grow as ministry leaders.
- The Passover Seder Experience remained a formative, fun, and faith-building event that helped children and their parents discover deeper connections between the Old Testament and the story of Jesus.
- MERGE continued to strengthen relationships across generations, bearing fruit throughout our church. As a direct result of the ministry, 14 students now serve as volunteers with South Kids.

LOOKING AHEAD

We pray that God, through the Holy Spirit, will continue drawing kids to Himself. As they grow in their understanding of His great love, may they choose to live in the way of Jesus and follow Him faithfully.

PRAYER REQUEST: Pray that God would continue growing our South Kids in faith while strengthening our team, especially our newest volunteers, as they invest in the lives of children.

STUDENTS LIVING IN HIS WAY WITH HIS HEART

Doing Fusion in partnership with South Fellowship Church has been an amazing way to show, not only tell, our students that the gospel of Jesus Christ has universal reach. The implications of that reality for their Christian lives are immeasurable.

— JOSE PABLO, COMUNIDAD NEXO

A Story from This Year

A student entered our group with significant feelings of self-doubt, questions about identity, and wrestling with their faith. They were welcomed with open arms by our students and felt seen, cared for, and loved at South Students. During Winter Camp, this student shared that “this was the first time they had felt like they truly mattered, and that God loved them”. While questions and wrestling always remains, this student has chosen to live in community; seeking growth and living in faith amidst life’s challenges.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- Comunidad Nexo continued serving alongside South Students as we loved our respective communities in Littleton and San José together.
- Our students developed service-focused hearts, choosing to serve both locally and globally as they lived out their faith.
- Students deepened their relationships with the Watchmen Prayer Team and developed a growing heart for prayer.

LOOKING AHEAD

We are excited about our continued partnership with our friends at Comunidad Nexo, as we grow and serve our communities. We are eager to see how students continue to be transformed, learning to live in the Way of Jesus with the Heart of Jesus in their relationships, homes, schools, and neighborhoods. We are looking forward to the incredible work God will do as our community grows closer to Him and to each other.

Young Adults

YOUNG ADULTS PURSUING JESUS IN AUTHENTIC COMMUNITY.

A Story from This Year

One evening during a scheduled get-together, we began our typical discussion with a question: Where has God felt present or absent in your life this year? The room was so quiet at first. Soon the sharing started, simple at first. After a few shared, people began to open up and get vulnerable with each other. There was joy and also many tears. This group is learning to trust one another and is willing to share openly and honestly.

-YOUNG ADULTS GROUP MEMBER

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- God continued to bring new young adults into the group, creating opportunities for new friendships and deeper community.
- We saw trust grow as people became more willing to share openly and walk alongside one another through life's challenges.
- Individual faith journeys continued to deepen, and one Bible study even formed organically from relationships built within the group.

LOOKING AHEAD

We're inviting the group to help shape the vision for the year ahead. Together, we're exploring opportunities to learn, serve, and grow through classes, volunteering, and a retreat focused on deepening our faith journeys.

PRAYER REQUEST: Pray that God would continue to reveal His vision for this community and deepen each person's relationship with Jesus and one another.

Women's Formation

WHERE TRUTH MEETS LIFE, AND NO ONE WALKS ALONE

This was my first semester in a MomCo group, and I really valued the chance to talk with other moms who were going through many of the things I was also going through. There were many moments when I felt really touched and seen by others and felt like I wasn't alone.

-BETHANY ERICSON, MOMCO PARTICIPANT

A Story from This Year

For ten years, Sisterhood has been a steady place of safety, a weekly sanctuary where burdens aren't carried alone, but laid together at the foot of the cross. Over the decade, those shared moments have grown into enduring friendships rooted in a beautiful, consistent reality: seeing the reflection of Jesus in one another. It's a space made intentionally easy to step into, requiring no homework, just an open heart. The deep hope now is simply for more women to pull up a chair and experience that same life-giving community.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- We saw God awaken a deeper awareness of His Spirit and bring greater freedom to our community.
- We watched God draw women out of the margins and into meaningful relationships, where they are now boldly praying for one another and truly carrying each other's burdens.
- God faithfully answered our prayers by moving in the heart of a deeply committed volunteer, who stepped into a vital ministry leadership role with incredible courage and passion this year.

PRAYER REQUEST: Pray that every woman would be deeply rooted in Christ's love, confident in her identity as His beloved daughter, and that God would continue building meaningful relationships across generations.

Men's Formation

MEN LEARNING TO LIVE IN THE WAY OF JESUS WITH THE HEART OF JESUS.

"God is speaking to me through these guys. I've learned to step back and let Him guide our time together instead of trying to control every discussion. Since January, our group has grown from about four men to six, with even more interested in joining. Each man has brought something unique, and it's been incredible to watch God build this community."

-MEN'S GROUP LEADER

A Story from This Year

One of the greatest encouragements this year has been watching the men of South step up to lead and invest in one another. While we didn't launch any new ministry initiatives, God continued growing the ministry from within. Two new men's groups began meeting, and several existing groups have continued to grow. It's been a powerful reminder that the church is at its healthiest when people take ownership of caring for one another, without staff needing to direct every step. God continues to build His church through ordinary faithfulness and willing hearts.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- God continued growing men's community, with 73 men gathering regularly in open groups and many more meeting throughout the week in smaller groups.
- Two new men's groups formed as men stepped forward to create spaces where others could grow in faith and community.
- We continue to see the church being the church as men naturally take ownership of discipling, encouraging, and walking alongside one another.

PRAYER REQUEST: Pray that God would continue raising up men who feel called to lead, disciple, and create spaces where others can grow in faith together.

Formation

ENCOUNTERING JESUS IN COMMUNITY

"It feels so good to now know people when we gather on Sundays. The class has also brought a new freshness to my time with God and helped me learn to be silent before Him again."

— EMOTIONALLY HEALTHY SPIRITUALITY PARTICIPANT

A Story from This Year

This year, we launched South Midweek with the hope that it would become both a welcoming first step into community and a place where people could encounter Jesus and grow. We weren't sure what to expect, but God exceeded our hopes. We watched people who were new to South build meaningful friendships, find healing, and take important next steps in their faith. Seeing lives transformed through simple rhythms of gathering, learning, and praying together has been one of the greatest joys of this year.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- South Midweek became a meaningful place for people to build relationships, grow spiritually, and take next steps in following Jesus.
- Our church gathered in prayer throughout the Lent Prayer Initiative, creating space to seek God together as a community.
- More people publicly declared their desire to live in the way of Jesus with the heart of Jesus through baptism.

LOOKING AHEAD

We're excited to continue creating spaces through South Midweek where people can connect, grow, and experience God's transforming work. Our hope is that even more people will encounter Jesus and discover meaningful community as they take their next step.

PRAYER REQUEST: Pray that we would remain attentive to the Holy Spirit's leading as we continue creating opportunities for people to grow in their relationship with Jesus.

Community Care

PASTORAL AND BENEVOLENT CARE FOR OUR CHURCH AND NEIGHBORS.

"I just wanted to say thank you again. You were generous and kind in my time of need. Your gift gave me the space I needed to work and begin catching up. In a world where unkindness can feel so common, you showed me kindness and gave me hope again. Bless you all!"

— BENEVOLENCE RECIPIENT

A Story from This Year

Our Benevolence Ministry received a call from parents who had fallen behind on payments for their storage unit. At first, it seemed like an unusual request, until we learned that inside the unit was the oxygen and medical equipment their three-year-old son needed while preparing for another heart surgery. Years of medical bills had left them unable to keep up with the payments. Because of your generosity, we were able to help cover the cost so they could access the equipment their little boy depended on. Later, they sent us a photo of their smiling "heart warrior" with a note that simply said, "We are so grateful for your generosity." Moments like these remind us that compassion can bring hope during life's hardest seasons.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- Through the generosity of the South community, we distributed $45,716.84 in benevolence assistance to 104 individuals and families, helping meet practical needs with the love of Christ.
- Our Christmas visits to seniors continued to be a meaningful reminder that no one is forgotten. We're especially grateful to June Schichtel's group for baking bread and delivering flowers.
- We walked alongside many families through the loss of loved ones, celebrating lives well lived while pointing to the hope we have in Jesus.

LOOKING AHEAD

Pastoral care will always be an opportunity to share the hope, love, and joy of Jesus. As we continue serving our church family and surrounding community, we hope to provide compassionate support that equips people toward long-term stability while welcoming more volunteers to join this ministry.

Operations

STEWARDING THE PEOPLE, PLACES, AND SYSTEMS THAT SUPPORT MINISTRY

This year I began serving at the front desk every Thursday. It has been such a gift. Every week I see our mission lived out through the love our staff shows to everyone who walks through the doors, and it encourages me to live in the way of Jesus with the heart of Jesus.”

— REBECCA ZEHNER, OFFICE VOLUNTEER

A Story from This Year

Relationships are at the heart of Church Operations. While our team cares for facilities, systems, maintenance, and more, we know the spaces we steward are ultimately about people. One highlight this year was honoring Augie, affectionately known as “The Barber,” as he retired after more than 40 years as a tenant on our campus. Celebrating his long-standing presence and the relationships he built over four decades was a true joy. Watching him finish this season well was a powerful reminder of God’s faithfulness and the lasting impact of relationships built over a lifetime.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- God continued to provide and grow an incredible volunteer team whose dedication and ownership are so evident that many visitors assume they are staff members.
- We saw God strengthen relationships with our tenants, creating greater partnership, understanding, and community across our campus.
- Through challenging situations, God taught us to extend Christ-like love while maintaining healthy boundaries, allowing us to care for people with both grace and truth.

THE PROJECTS

We hope South Fellowship continues to share generously with our community. As we steward our facilities, finances, grounds, systems, and staff well, we pray they will continue to create opportunities for ministry to flourish and help us become a church our city and world would miss if we were gone.

PRAYER REQUEST: Pray for patience as we navigate the daily demands of campus operations, wisdom to steward our time, money, and resources well, and a continued spirit of joy as we serve together.

Food Bank

HELPING NEIGHBORS FLOURISH THROUGH FOOD AND COMMUNITY.

"I deeply value volunteering at the South Fellowship Food Bank because of the relationships I've built each week. Seeing the same volunteers and shoppers creates a genuine sense of community and shared purpose."

— FOOD BANK VOLUNTEER

A Story from This Year

S (name changed for privacy) has been shopping at our Food Bank for more than five years. During that time, we've prayed with her for her oldest son as he struggled with addiction. Over the past year, she has watched God begin a remarkable work in his life as he stopped drinking, took responsibility for his growing family, and began rebuilding relationships. As she shared this journey with us, she also experienced God's love through a community that continued to pray, listen, and care for her. While we often celebrate that nothing is too big for the Lord, we've also been reminded that nothing is too small for Him.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- God continued to bring people together into a community of belonging. We welcomed shoppers from 38+ countries, reminding us that the nations are our neighbors. People experienced the love of Jesus alongside practical support.
- God strengthened and matured our ministry. We hired Food Bank Manager Kris Yahashi, who kept relationships at the center of all we do as she improved communication and systems.
- God provided more than we asked for. Volunteers contributed more than 8,400 hours, financial giving exceeded our budget, and generous partners filled our shelves. We were continually amazed by God's abundant provision.
- God wrote a story much bigger than any one of us. We were reminded that, like a tapestry, we each saw only a few threads. Yet God faithfully wove together every volunteer, shopper, donor, and partner into something beautiful that revealed his love to our community.

LOOKING AHEAD

We're grateful for the fruit God has already brought and excited to continue tending the seeds He has planted. We look forward to investing in our volunteers and leaders, deepening relationships with shoppers and community partners, and discovering new ways to care for our neighbors with dignity and compassion.

PRAYER REQUEST: Please join us in praying that Jesus would deepen our curiosity about what it truly means to love others well. May He continue teaching us better questions to ask as we listen, learn, and grow together.

Local Outreach

INVITING OUR COMMUNITY INTO RELATIONAL, MISSIONAL LIVING.

A Story from This Year

At the Christmas Shoppe Kids Activities area, our student volunteers created a space of joy and belonging. One teenage volunteer noticed a young child who was struggling and put on a puppet show in Spanish to help the child feel safe and welcomed. Another student spent time with a 12-year-old girl who appeared uncomfortable, inviting her into the group until she felt like one of the teenagers. These small acts of presence and kindness reminded us that God's love shines through people who see, welcome, and love their neighbors well.

WHAT GOD DID THIS YEAR

- God created places where people experienced belonging through the Food Bank, Christmas Shoppe, Spanish classes, and shared meals, where kindness, dignity, and genuine community accompanied practical support.
- God built bridges across cultures as friendships grew across languages, backgrounds, and experiences, reflecting the beauty of His diverse family.
- God reminded us that transformation happens through relationships. Time and again, people remembered the welcome, encouragement, prayer, and care they experienced.
- God expanded our imagination for local outreach through classes, conversations, and community events that invited people to join His work of renewal in Littleton.
- God strengthened the ministry by raising up new leaders, growing volunteer ownership, and building healthier systems for the future.

"Every moment felt special for each shopper. From the amazement as they walked in and saw everything prepared for them, to the joy of choosing quality gifts for their children, every detail communicated care. The welcoming atmosphere and thoughtful spaces for families made a meaningful difference."

Global Outreach

"GO THEREFORE AND MAKE DISCIPLES OF ALL NATIONS." -JESUS

A Story from This Year

One highlight this year was supporting Missional Training 2026 through our ministry partner, the India Graduate School of Missiology (IGSM). The training brought together 36 frontline ministry leaders who serve among some of India's unreached and under-reached people groups. They returned to their communities with renewed vision, strengthened faith, and practical tools for ministry. Through IGSM's network of more than 800 alumni, the gospel continues to reach places where following Jesus is often difficult and risky. Their courage reminds us that God is faithful and worthy, even in the hardest places.

LOOKING AHEAD

We're excited to host the Perspectives Course for the first time in ten years, inviting people to discover God's global mission and how their everyday lives are part of it. We pray this experience will deepen our church's vision for the nations and inspire more people to join in what God is doing around the world.

PRAYER REQUEST: Pray for wisdom as our Global Outreach leadership team transitions and seeks God's direction for the future of this ministry.

Rachel (pseudonym), a single mother of two, was trying to survive and provide for her family through prostitution when she first became involved with TRU, one of the ministries led by our partners Tyler and Amy Maxwell. After hearing the gospel shared many times, she made the decision to follow Christ and began rebuilding her life through small business training. She was later selected as one of the first participants in TRU's Street to Sustainable women's discipleship program. Since then, Rachel has continued to grow in her faith and now leads Bible studies while serving in a leadership role with the girls ministry. Her story is a powerful example of how Christ transforms lives.
